Notes on the Estimated 2020/21 Distribution of Basic Education Funding

The estimated basic education funding distribution for 2020/21 shows 27 school districts receiving a decrease compared to 2019/20. This is largely the result of a greater amount of the total funding flowing through the formula ($799 million in 2020/21), which relies upon changing district-based factors, such as the median household income of each school district (depicted in the subsequent pages). It appears that most school districts estimated to receive a decrease in 2020/21 experienced an increase in the Census-reported median household income.

Under Pennsylvania's current basic education funding (BEF) distribution, each school district receives the BEF subsidy amount it received in 2014/15 (with adjustments in a few cases) plus its fair share (determined by the fair funding formula) of new funding added to the BEF total since 2014/15. Each school district's fair share of BEF is its share of the statewide total weighted and adjusted average daily membership (ADM).

Therefore, as more funding is added to the pot, the share of funding distributed through the fair funding formula increases. Additionally, as more funding is distributed through the fair funding formula, the financial impact (the value of each weighted and adjusted ADM) of the dynamic formula factors increases.

<sup>5</sup>Section 2502.53(b)(iv) of the Public School Code specifies the BEF formula amount given the school district social security roll-in.
